As it relates a note of five hundred dollars Auchlers Cox has given to John Francis Buchette for the consideration of certain services the said Buchette is to perform for the said Cox in demanding one hundred and sixty acres of land from the United States for the said Cox it being agreed between the said John Francis Buchette of the one part and the said Auchlers Cox of the other part, in case, the said Cox would rather make unto the said John Francis Buchette a deed for the 160 acres of land instead of paying him the 500 Dollars the said Buchette agrees to receive a deed for the said lands in lieu of the 500 Dollars aforesaid.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 16 day of October 1819.
