Cornelius Burns
vs
Paul H Earle

State of Alabama } Whereas,
Jefferson County } Paul H Earle agrees to advance to me in necessary provisions, farming tools and implements not to exceed in amount Twenty Five dollars, and, Whereas I am indebted to Paul H Earle in the sum of Twenty four & 70/100 dollars by promissory dated, Feby 7th 1877, and due December 25th 1877 for necessary provisions, farming tools and implements to make a crop, The said advances are obtained bona fide for the purpose of making a crop, and without such advances it would not be in our power to obtain the necessary team, provisions and farming implements to make a crop in the year 1877, I therefore grant unto Paul N Earle the statutory lien on my crop of cotton and corn grown in the year 1877 in Shelby County, Ala as provided by Section 1858 of the Revised Code of Alabama, And for payment for said advances including note I hereby agree to waive all right or claim to personal property exemption, secured to me under the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama.

And in order to better secure payment for said advances including note I hereby bargain, sell and convey unto Paul N Earle, his heirs and assigns, the following property, to-wit a certain clay bank mare about eleven years old, also a certain white & red spotted cow & her yearling calf also a red sided white backed cow & her yearling calf, If I fails to pay off said advances and the cost of this deed by the first November, 1877, or upon my selling or attempting to sell any of said crop or other property, or moving the same from the limits of Shelby & Jefferson county, Paul N Earle is authorized to take all of said property into custody and after giving five days notice by posters in two public places in Jefferson county, to sell the same at Elyton Ala for cash, and with proceeds thereof pay off for said advances and the cost of this deed, The balance shall be paid to the undersigned.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal, on this, the 7th day of February 1877
