W. Adams Buck
To
Bruce Harris & Co.

The State of Alabama } On or before 1st day of November 1879 I promise to Shelby County } pay to the order of Bruce Harris & Co Sixty five dollars for value received. The right of exemption under the laws of Alabama is hereby waived as provided for in Section 7 Article 10 in the Constitution of the State of Alabama. The consideration of this obligation is an advancement made by said Bruce Harris & Co of money and provisions to the above amount "bona fide" for the purpose of making a crop this year 1879, and without which it would not be in my power to procure the requirements to make such crop, and I hereby declare the aforesaid advances or the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on my crop grown on the H C McAdams plantation in Shelby County Alabama this year, in accordance with the Act Approved January 15th 1866; and to further secure the payment of the aforesaid obligation according to the tenor and effect thereof I hereby also bargain sell and convey to the said Bruce Harris & Co or agent or assigns the following described personal property, to wit: One Sorrel pony named Bob,—

For the sum of Sixty five dollars, which amount has been paid to me and for which receipt is herewith given. In default of payment at maturity of the aforesaid obligation the said Bruce Harris & Co or agent or assigns hereby authorized to take said property into possession, sell the same as they may deem best, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of this obligation and expenses incident to the execution of this trust; upon this condition nevertheless, if said obligation is paid at maturity this conveyance is null and void. And it is further agreed if the said Bruce Harris & Co shall advance to the said, ~~Buck Harris & Co~~ Buck McAdams during the present year, any money or provisions over and above the amount of said note, this instrument shall also stand as security for the same as fully as if included in said note.— And the said Buck McAdams hereby declares that the above conveyed property is his own, and that there is no lien or incumbrance on the same.— In further consideration of the premises I hereby also declare that there will be no outside crops on the said place, owned by my wife, daughter or any one whatsoever, but that this instrument is to constitute a lien on the entire crop raised on the said place this year

Witness my signature this 1st day of February 1879.
