The State of Alabama. } Know all men by Shelby County } these presents that I John Hunt of Shelby County and State aforesaid have this day bargained sold to Green McLeroy of the County and State aforesaid a certain new wagon that I have now in possession the right whereof I warrant and defend to him his heirs and assigns to which I bind myself my and assigns severally and jointly firmly by these presents. The condition of the bill of sale is as follows. Given McSeery has want my security to Edmd King for fifty four Dollars 68 cents has also want my security to Samuel Randall for twenty five Dollars, now if I the said John Hewit does not pay or satisfy said debts on or before the first of May next the said McSeery is to take or sell or dispose of said wagon in any way he sees cause for the purpose of settling said debt & if any over plus is to account to said Hewit for the same.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 20th day of April 1833.
