The State of Alabama } Before me, Wm Lyman a Notary Public, County of Shelby. } in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared R. L. Woolley, who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says on oath as follows:
That his Name is R. L. Woolley that he knows and is familiar with that tract of land and plantation commonly known as the Dinkins and Latham place, situated on the public road running from Montevallo, Alabama, to Calera, Alabama, and being the same lands now in the possession of one Norman Morrison: this entire tract is inclosed in and surrounded by a wire fence, the Southern line of which fence runs along ~~said~~ adjacent to the Northern boundary line of said public road: that all of said land inclosed by said fence, and all of said land lying North of said road to the Western boundary line of said plantation, has been in the possession of the said Norman Morrison, and those through whom he claims, including H. D. and S. A. Latham and John T. Ellis, and their grantors, for a period of forty years or more; that affiant knows of his own personal knowledge that all of the lands inclosed in said fence have been known as a part of said plantation, and have been in the possession of said Norman Morrison, and those through whom he claims, for a period of over forty years, and that the boundary lines of said fence have been located as they now are for a period of over forty years, and that no other person has ever made any claim to any of said lands North of said road located East of the Western boundary of said lands: said possession of said Norman Morrison, and those through whom he claims said lands, has been adverse, continuous, peaceable, open and exclusive under a claim of ownership by the said Norman Morrison, and those through whom he claims, for said period of time. The said plantation has always been considered and known as fronting on said public road from the extreme Eastern to the extreme Western boundary line of said lands.
Sworn to and subscribed before R. L. Woolley.
