Henry Wideman
To
Paul H Earle

The State of Alabama
Jefferson County

Whereas, Paul H. Earle, agrees to advance to me in necessary provisions, farming tools and implements not to exceed in amount Thirty dollars, for necessary provisions, farming tools & implements to make a crope. The said advances are obtained bona fied for the purpose of making a crop, and without such advances it would not be in my power to obtain the necessary teams, provisions, and farming implements to make a crop in the year 1878. I therefore grant unto Paul H. Earle the Statutory lien on my crop of cotton and corn grown in the year 1878, in Shelby County Alabama, as provided by Section 1858 of the Revised Code of Ala., And for payment for said advances including note, I hereby agree to waive all right or claim personable property exemption, secured to me under the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama, And in order to better secure payment for said advances including note I hereby bargain, sell and convey unto Paul H. Earle, his heirs and assigns, the following property to wit: my red cow & her yearling calf, also my dark brindle cow & her yearling calf, also my white heifer five years old also my white spotted heifer three years old, If I fail to pay off said advances and the costs of this deed, by the 1st Nov 1878, or upon my selling or attempting to sell any of said crop or other property, or moving the same from the limits of Shelby & Jefferson counties, Paul H. Earle is authorized to take all of said property into custody, and after giving five days notice, by posters in two public places in Jefferson County, to sell the same at Birmingham, for cash, and with the proceeds thereof pay off said advances, and the cost of this deed, the balance shall be paid to the undersigned,

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal on this the 18th day of December 1877
Attest, J. E. Wilson

Henry Wideman (L.S.)

Statement not a part of the deed
I hereby state that I own in my own right the property conveyed above, and there is no prior lien on the same,
