Know all men, that the undersigned has this day executed a note to J. E. Densler & Co. of Wilsonville Alabama, for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, due the 1st day of Nov 1878, bearing even date with this deed, which was given for advances in necessary provisions, horses, mules farming implements, and in money to purchase the same, obtained by him from them "bona fide", for the purpose of making a crop, and that without such advances it would not be in my power to procure the necessary teams, provisions and farming utensils to make a crop. And I also hereby declare that said advances, or the amount thereof, shall be a lien on my crops, grown the present year, in said county, to make which they were procured, and on the stock furnished, or which I may buy with the money so advanced in accordance with the Statutes of the Revised Code of the State of Alabama. Now to further secure the punctual payment of the above described note, with all further advances that may, from time to time, be made to me, and to secure the payment of commission of 2½ per cent, on the proceeds of all the bales of 500 pounds lint cotton, each for — And also for the further consideration of one dollar to me in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, I have bargained, sold and conveyed, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto the said J. E. Densler & Co. all my crop of corn & cotton, to be grown this year, in said county, also 1 Bay mule named Jake, one mare named Nellie. To have and to hold the same to the said J. E Densler & Co. their heirs and assigns, forever. The conditions of the above obligation are: That I to deliver all my cotton crop to be grown the present year, to J. E Densler & Co in Wilsonville, as fast as the same can be prepared for market, to be sold by ~~me~~ them, and the proceeds applied to the payment of this mortgage, and if the said note, and all other liabilities, which may have accrued on the same, are paid by the 1st day of Nov 1878, then this deed to be null and void. But if the above note and all other liabilities accruing thereon are not paid by the said 1st day of Nov 1878, then in that event—the said J. E. Denson & Co Agent or attorney shall hereby be fully authorized and empowered to take any of the above described property, or any other effects of mine, wherever found, into possession and sell the same, whether in possession or not, at a private or public sale, for cash, and pay off said note and all other liabilities, together with all costs, that may in any way accrue in selling said property and foreclosing this mortgage. I hereby affirm that there is no other lien or mortgage on said property, and that I will interpose no interference to its delivery and sale.
