The State of Alabama } Know all men by these presents that the note of Shelby County } even date herewith to James H. Page for the sum of Thirty two Dollars and due on the first day of November 1879, was given for advances in necessary teams, provisions, mules and farming implements, and in order to purchase the same obtained by me from him "bona fide" for the purpose of making a crop, and that without said advances it would not be in my power to procure the necessary teams, provisions and farming implements to make a crop. and I also hereby declare that said advances, or the amount thereof shall be a lien on my crop grown on my plantation by me and family in Shelby County Alabama this year, to make which they were procured, and on the stock furnished or which I may buy with the money so advanced; in accordance with Sections 1838 to 1869, inclusive, of the Revised Code of the State of Alabama. In consideration of said advances, and to further secure the payment of the note above specified. I do hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey to the said James H. Page the following described property, to wit: All of the said crop of cotton and corn raised on said plantation during the present year, and the following described land being and lying in Shelby County, State of Alabama to wit: the North W ¼ of the N W ¼ Section 30 Township 20 Range 1 East, also 2 cows and their calves. One of the cows dun colored called "Dinny" the other cow Red & white spatted called Cherry. also 1 heifer Dun colored called Rose. also all my house & kitchen furniture. To have and to hold the above described property to said James H. Page and his heirs and assigns forever. The right of exemption under the laws of Alabama is hereby waived as provided for in Section 7 Article 10 in the Constitution of the State of Alabama.
And if said note is not paid at maturity, the said James H. Page is hereby authorized to take the above described property into possession and sell the same as he may deem best, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of said note and the expenses of keeping and selling the said property; upon this condition nevertheless, that if said note is paid at maturity, this conveyance is to be void except as to said crop. And it is further agreed that if the said James H Page shall advance to the said L B Cameron during the present year any money or provisions over and above the amount of said note, this instrument shall also stand as security for the same as fully as if included in said note, not exceeding Thirty two Dollars.

It is further understood that nothing herein contained shall affect or impair the lien or remedy given to the said James H Page upon and against said crop, by said sections of the Revised Code of Alabama. And the said L B Cameron hereby declare that the above conveyed property is his own, and that there is no lien or incumbrance upon the same except the present one to J. H. Page. In further consideration of the premises, I hereby bind myself to ship or deliver my entire crop of cotton raised this year to said James H Page to be sold by him.
Given under my hands and seals this the 31 day of January 1879.
