Norton Era J. The State of Alabama) On or before the first day of November 1879 I To Shelby County) promise to pay to the order of J. H. Page the sum Jas. H. Page of fifty dollars for value received. The right of exemption under the Constitution and laws of Alabama is hereby waived as provided for in Section 7 Article 10 in the Constitution, and Chapter 2 Title 6 Part 2 of the Code of the State of Alabama. A part of the consideration of this obligation is an advancement made by said J. H. Page to me of money and provisions to the above amount "bona fide" for the purpose of making a crop this year 1879 and without which it would not be in my power to procure the requirements to make such crop, And I hereby declare the aforesaid advances or the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on all the crop grown by me in Shelby County, Alabama, this year, in accordance with the Act approved January 15th 1866; and to further secure the payment of the aforesaid obligation according to the tenor and effect thereof, I do hereby also bargain sell and convey to the said J. H. Page or his agent or assign the following described personal property, to wit; One yoke of Oxen red colored called Lage & the other one Black colored called Rally also one ox wagon also 15 head of hogs, also 6 head of goats and their increase, In default of payment at maturity of the aforesaid obligation the said J. H. Page or his agent or assign is hereby authorized to take said property into their possession, sell the same as they may deem best, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of this obligation and expenses incident to the execution of this trust; upon this condition, nevertheless, if said obligation is paid at maturity this conveyance is null and void. And it is further agreed, if the said J. H. Page shall advance to the said Ira J Horton during the present year any money, provisions or merchandise of any description over and above and above the amount of said note, this instrument shall also stand as security for the same as fully as if included in said note, and the said Ira J. Horton hereby declare that the above conveyed property is his own, and that there is no lien or incumbrance on the same, In further consideration of the premises, I hereby also declare that there will be no outside crops to be claimed by wife, daughter, or any one whatsoever, but that this instrument is to constitute a lien on the entire crop raised on my place or lands rented in Shelby Co Alabama this year. Witness my hand and seal this the 10th day of March 1879
