State of Alabama } This deed of trust made and entered into Shelby County } this 30th day of December A.D. 1856 between Ephraim A. Reinhardt and W. H. Paul both of the County and State aforesaid witnesseth; that whereas the said W. H. Paul is justly indebted to the said E. A. Reinhardt in the sum of one hundred dollars due by three promissory notes described as follows. The first made the 31st day of January A.D. 1856 for twenty five dollars and due the 1st day of March following upon this note the interest is unpaid up to this date The second made the 31st day of January 1856 for thirty eight dollars and due the 25th day of December following The third made 31st day of January 1856 and due the 25th day of December following The said W. H. Paul now being willing and desirous to effectually secure the said Reinhardt against all loss and that the said promissory notes may be effectually secured do give a lien on the following described property to wit, one peddling waggon or Carry all and one black horse, which the said Paul for and in Consideration of the premises and for the Consideration above specified do grant bargain and sell unto the said Rumhardt the above described property to have and to hold unto the said Rumhardt his heirs and assigns forever upon the following Condition that should the said Paul fail to pay said notes by the 1st day of April next then the said Rumhardt may advertise said property above described and sell the same to the highest bidder for Cash, first giving the said Paul ten days notice of such sale by posting two or more advertisements of the sale of such property at public places in said County and out of the proceeds of such sale the said Rumhardt is to retain the amount of such notes and interest thereon and all costs accruing by virtue of this deed the ballance if any pay over to the said Paul. But should the said Paul pay off said notes by the first day of April next then this obligation is to be null and void. Given under our hands and seals, day and year above written.
