Edwards
to Garrard
et al.

State of Georgia, } This Indenture made this twenty-fifth Bibb County } (25th) day of May Eighteen hundred and Ninety six (1896), by and between Francis M. Edwards of Boston, County of Suffolk, Commonwealth of Massachusetts party of the first part, and Louis F. Garrard, F. Y. Tigner, Tol. Y. Crawford of the State of Georgia, County of Muscogee, and City of Columbus, and Julian R. Lane of the State of Georgia, County of Bibb and City of Macon, and Sidney Gleason of Boston, County of Suffolk, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, parties of the second part. Witnesseth: Whereas the said Francis M. Edwards was a purchaser with B. C. Parsons of said Boston, of the property and franchises formerly of the Macon & Birmingham Railroad Company, and sold at judicial sale at said Macon on December twenty seventh (27th) Eighteen hundred and ninety five (1895); And whereas the practice parties of the second part have purchased of the said Edwards & Parsons all the property purchased by them as aforesaid at said judicial sale, except One hundred and fifty (150) box cars and one hundred (100) flat cars: And, whereas the said B. C. Parsons has by deed of even date herewith conveyed his right title and interest in and to the property aforesaid to said parties of the second part: Now Therefore in consideration of the premises, and of the sum of One (1) Dollar to the party of the first part paid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, and other good and valuable consideration, the party of the first part hereunto moving; D. the said Francis M. Edwards, do hereby grant, bargain, sell, alien, convey, confirm and quit-claim, and doth by these presents grant, bargain, sell, alien, convey, confirm and quit-claim unto the said parties of the said parties of the second part, their heirs and assigns, forever in fee simple the following described property: All and singular the rights, privileges, interests, franchises, tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances, and property of every description, whether real, personal or mixed, embraced or included in the decree of foreclosure under and by virtue of which said judicial sale was had as aforesaid, except the one hundred and fifty (150) box cars and One hundred (100) flat cars mentioned as aforesaid, which said property is more fully described as follows; to-wit: All and singular the railroad of the Macon & Birmingham Railroad Company which was constructed on the first day of May Eighteen hundred and ninety (1890), and owned by said Macon & Birmingham Railroad Company or thereafter constructed or acquired by it:

Commencing at a point on the Georgia Southern & Florida Railway about six (6) miles from the City of Macon in said State of Georgia, and extending Northwest to the City of Birmingham in the State of Alabama, in all a distance of Two hundred and twenty (220) miles, more or less, as well as all franchises of said Company; also all its rights of way, bridges, piers, fences, tracks, side-tracks, station houses, depots, grounds, stations, workshops, wave-houses, structures and fixtures, improvements, and all other real estate owned by the said Macon & Birmingham Railroad Company on the first (1st) day of May Eighteen hundred and ninety (1890), or which was thereafter acquired by it. Also all tools, machinery, locomotive engines, tenders, cars, passenger or freight trucks and all rolling stock, fuel and supplies, and all other railway equipment which belonged to said Macon & Birmingham Railroad Company on the first (1st) day of May Eighteen hundred and ninety (1890), or which thereafter belonged to it. Together with all and singular the property, estate, equity of redemption, rights, privileges, immunities, franchises, tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging, or in anywise appertaining thereto or reversion & reversions, remainder or remainders, incomes, rents, issues and profits thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well in law as in equity, of said Macon & Birmingham Railroad Company, by, in and to the premises, property, railroad and appurtenances, which said property is more fully set-forth and described in the deeds of conveyance to the party of the first part as purchaser made in pursuance of the decree of foreclosure hereinbefore referred to. To have and to hold the above granted property with all the privileges, rights and appurtenances thereto belonging, to the said parties of the second part, their heirs and assigns forever, to their own use and behoof in fee simple. This conveyance is made without covenants or warranties, expressed or implied, in law or in equity, on the part of the party of the first part, and without recourse in any event to the said party of the first part.

In Witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal on the day and year first above written.
