Anderson H. G. & Wife to R. W. Nolen

Whereas Harry G. Anderson did on the 27th day of December A.D. 1871 convey to Robert W. Nolen in consideration of Three hundred and seventy five dollars certain real and personal property as described in said deed. Now for the purpose of perfecting said Conveyance Belle E. Anderson wife of Harry G. Anderson does hereby ~~voluntarily~~ relinquish convey and release all right to dower in and to the real Estate described in said deed to said Robert W. Nolen more particularly mentioned in said deed as being the one undivided half interest in a certain parcel of land upon which is situated the Tan Yard formerly belonging to the late firm of Huyett & Anderson, the said deed made as above mentioned by said Harry G. Anderson to said Robert W. Nolen, being hereby refered to as part of the deed, for more correct and definite description of said land.

The true object and design of the conveyance being to divest said Belle E. Anderson of all right to dower in said described real Estate, for the Consideration named in said deed.

In Witness whereof the said Harry G. Anderson & Belle E. Anderson his wife hereto set their hands and seals this 2 day of Feby 1872
