J. B. Earle & Co

The State of Alabama
Shelby County

This Indenture made and entered into between Green Lee, of the first part, Jordan Bailey trustee of the second part, and J. B. Earle & Co of the third part Witness That the party of the first part is justly indebted to the said party of the third part in the sum of Forty two 70/100 Dollars for supplies advanced, and the party of third part agrees to advance to the party of the first part other supplies during the year not to exceed in amount Eighty two 30/100 Dollars. The said supplies advanced and those agreed to be advanced are obtained to enable the party of the first part to make a crop, and without said advances the said party of the first part would be unable to obtain the necessary teams and supplies to make a crop in the present year,

Now therefore in order to secure the necessary payment of the said sum of money the said party of the first part has bargained sold and conveyed unto the party of the second part the following described property all the crop of cotton grown planted, and raised by the party of the first part during the present year on his farm in Shelby County,

To have and to hold forever, on the following conditions of trust:

If the said party of the first part shall fully pay off on or before the 25th day of December next the said debt of Forty two 70/100 dollars advanced, and the said sum of Eighty two 30/100 Dollars agreed to be advanced, and the cost of this deed, this instrument is to be void, but if the said party of the first part shall fail to pay off the said sums of money at the time and in the manner aforesaid, or shall sell or attempt to sell, the said property, or any part thereof, or move the same from the limits of the County, the party of the second part is authorized to take into custody the said property and after giving ten days notice by written notices posted at the Court House door in Elyton, and one other public place in the County, to sell the same for cash and apply the proceeds of said sale to the payment of the said sum of Forty two 70/100 Dollars, and as much of said sum of Eighty two 30/100 dollars as may be justly owing. The balance, if any shall be paid to the party of the first part.

Witness our hands and seals this the 19th day of February 1873.
