Cofrile Grantor Vs J. J. Vincent Ben	State of Alabama } Shelby County } Know all Men, that the undersigned Francis Cofrile has this day executed a note to J. J.

Vincent & Co for the sum of Forty dollars dated the 1st day of November 1876, bearing even date with this deed, which was given for advances in necessary provisions, horses, mules, farming implements, and in money to purchase the same, obtained by me from bona fide, for the purpose of making a crop, and that without such advances it would not be in my power to procure the necessary teams, provision and farming utensils to make a crop. And I also hereby declare that said advances, or the amount thereof shall be a lien on crops grown the present year, in said county, to make which they were procured, and on the stock furnished, or which I may buy with the money so advanced in accordance with the Statute of the Revised Code of the State of Alabama. Now to further secure the punctual payment of the above described note, with all further advances that may, from time to time, be made to me, and to secure the payment of commissions of 2½ percent on the proceeds of 1 bale of ~~cotton~~ 500 pounds lint cotton, each for And also for the further consideration of one dollar to me in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged I have bargained, sold and conveyed, and by these presents do bargain, sell and convey unto the said J. J. Vincent & Co, the first bale of present year's crop of cotton, to be grown this year, in said county, To have and to hold the same to the said J. J. Vincent & Co, their heirs and assigns, forever. The conditions of the above obligation are, that I am to deliver all Bale cotton crop to be grown the present year, to J. J. Vincent & Co, as fast as the same can be prepared for market, to be sold by them, and the proceeds applied to the payment of this mortgage; and if the said note and all other liabilities, which may have accrued on the same, are paid by the 1st day of November 1876, then this Deed to be null & void. But ~~upon default~~ if the above note and all liabilities accruing thereon are not paid by the said 1st day of November 1876, then in that event, the said J. J. Vincent & Co or By Agent or Attorney shall hereby be fully authorized and empowered to take any of the above described property, or any other effects of mine, wherever found, into possession, and sell the same, whether in possession or not, at a private or public sale for cash, and pay off said note and all other liabilities, together with all costs that may in any way accrue in selling said property and foreclosing this mortgage I hereby affirm that there is no other lien or mortgage on said property and that I will interpose no interference to its delivery and sale. Given under our Hands and Seals, This 4th of November, 1876,
