J. E. Lawson
Lupu & Co.

The State of Alabama — Shelby County,
This Indenture made and entered into this 5th day of April 1876, between David W. Ray debtor of the first part, and Lupu & Co., creditor of 2d part witnesseth: That whereas the said party of the first part is justly indebted to the party of the 2d part in the sum of twenty five dollars due by account and payable on or before the 15th day of November 1876; and the said party of the 1st part being desirous to secure the payment of indebtedness; for and in consideration thereof, and for the further consideration of the sum of one dollar to the said party of the 1st part in hand paid by the said party of the 2d part, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said party 1st part has sold, and hereby sells and conveys to the said party of the 2d part, the following described property, to wit: one cow, Red color, called Rose, and her calf & all of the crop of cotton, sugar cane, and other produce raised on the home place of the said party of the 1st part; to have and to hold in trust as follows: It is hereby agreed that the said party of the 1st part is to have and retain possession of the said property until the 15th day of November; and if the said party of the 1st part shall fully pay to the said party of the 2d part said debt by said 15th day of November 1876, then this indenture is to be null and void. But upon default of such payment the said party of the 2d part is hereby authorized to take into possession and sell said property to the highest bidder for cash, after giving ten day notice of the time and place of said sale by publication in a newspaper, if one is published in the county or by posting at three public places, and out of the proceeds of said sale retain the sum of twenty five dollars and the reasonable costs incurred, and the balance, if any, pay to the said party of the first part.
