Brasher Bill
To
Hugh Stinson
P

I acknowledge myself on Settlement this day made to owe and be indebted to Henry Stinson in the sum of Ninty five 27/100 dollars which I promise to pay the 15th day of November next and this indebtedness is for supplies and articles furnished to enable me to make a crop, therefore I give said Stinson a lien this instrument intended as a mortgage on my entire crop both of Corn and Cotton raised by me the present year and also upon the Mace purchased by me of Penman & Co. through A. S. Stuell their agent. Witness my hand this 6th day of September 1876.
