Mose Fluker
To
Wm H. Taylor
P

State of Alabama } Know all Men, that the undersigned Shelby County } Mose Fluker has this day executed a note to William H. Taylor for the sum of One hundred Dollars, due the 1st day of November 1877, bearing even date with this Deed, which was given for advances in necessary provisions, horse mules farming implements, and in money to purchase the same, obtained by me, from him bona fide for the purpose of making a crop, and that without such advances it would not be in my power to procure the necessary teams, provisions and farming utensils to make a crop. And I also hereby declare that said advances, or the amount thereof, shall be a lien on my crops, grown the next year, in said County, to make which they are procured, and on the stock furnished, on which I may buy with the money so advanced in accordance with the Statute of the Revised Code of the State of Alabama,

Now, to further secure the punctual payment of the above described note, with all further advances that may, from time to time, be made to me,

And also for the further consideration of one dollar to me in hand paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, I have bargained, sold and conveyed and by these presents do bargain sell and convey unto the said William H. Taylor all my crop of corn and cotton, to be grown in the year 1897 in said county, Also one bay mare named Lucy, one mare colt named Lucy, one Cow & Calf. To have and to hold the same to the said William H. Taylor his heirs and assigns, forever.

The Conditions of the above Obligation are: That I am to deliver all my cotton crop to be grown the next year, to J. E. Dinsler & Co, in Wilsonville as fast as the same can be prepared for market, to be sold by them, and the proceeds applied to the payment of this mortgage; and if the said note and all other liabilities, which may have accrued on the same, are paid by the 1st day of November 1897, then this deed to be null and void, But if the above note and all other liabilities accruing thereon are not paid by the said 1st day of November 1897, then in that event, the said William H. Taylor Agent or Attorney shall hereby be fully authorized and empowered to take any of the above described property or any other effects of mine wherever found, into possession and sell the same wherever in possession or not at a private or public sale for cash and pay of said note and all other liabilities together with costs that may in any way accrue in selling said property and foreclosing this mortgage. I hereby affirm that there is no other lien or mortgage on said property, and that I will warrant and defend its delivery and sale.

Given under our Hands & Seals This 11th day November 1896.
