Vick Newton
To
J. H. Page

The State of Alabama
Shelby County

Whereas I am justly indebted to J. H. Page by promissory note given May the 2d 1877 and due the first day of November 1877 for the sum thirty five dollars, and whereas I have received from Jas H Page advances in supplies of meat and corn farming implements and merchandise amounting to thirty five dollars to enable me to make a crop for the year 1877 which I obtained from him bona fide for the purpose of making a crop, and without such advances it would not be in my power to procure the necessary team, provisions and farming implements with which to make a crop, and whereas I have agreed to make further advances to him for the purpose aforesaid, not to exceed thirty five dollars Now therefore in consideration of the premises, and to secure the said J. H. Page in payment for the advances and note above mentioned, and the further sum of one dollar, paid by said J. H. Page I hereby give to the said J. H. Page statutory lien on entire crop of Corn and Cotton to be raised by me and family during the year 1877 also I hereby waive my statutory rights as provided by the constitution of the State of Alabama as provided for by section 1858 of the Revised Code of Alabama and to further secure the payment of the above note and said advances I hereby bargain, sell and convey unto the said J. H. Page his heirs and assigns forever the following described property to wit: One cow and calf marked smooth crop off left and swallow fork and under bit in the right ear, also six head of year old hogs, smooth crop off the right ear and under half crop in the left ear,

Now, if the said note and sums advanced, and to be advanced are paid up on or before the first day of November 1877 then this conveyance to be void and of no effect! but if I should fail to pay off said sums of money at the time and in the manner aforesaid, or should sell the same, or attempt to sell the said property or any part thereof, or move the same from the limits of the County then the said J. H. Page shall be authorized by these presents to take said Crops and property into possession and sell the same to the highest bidder for cash after first giving five days notice, by posters at two public places in said County of time and place of sale, and with the proceeds of said sale, pay off said note and sums advanced, with interest accrued thereon, and the Expenses attending said sale and the said J. H. Page may lawfully ~~sign~~ authorize any other person in writing to take possession of said Crops and property and to sell the same as aforesaid.

After paying off said notes and advances, Expenses Etc, if there is any ~~[illegible]~~ balance it is to be paid to the undersigned. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affix my seal on this the 2 day of May 1877.
