Grant L. H.
To Jas H. Page

The State of Alabama — Shelby County.
Whereas I am justly indebted to James H. Page by promissory note, given May the 1st 1877 and due the first day of November 1877 for the sum of fifteen dollars, and whereas I have received from J. H. Page advances in supplies of meat corn, farming implements and merchandise, amounting to the sum of fifteen Dollars to enable me to make a crop for the year 1877, which I obtained from him bona fide for the purpose of making a crop, and without such advances it would not be in my power to procure the necessary team provisions and farming utensils with which to make a crop, and I have agreed to make further advances to him for the purpose aforesaid, not to exceed fifteen dollars. Now therefore in consideration of the premises, and to secure the said J. H. Page in payment for the advances and note above mentioned, and the further sum of One dollar, paid by said J. H.

Page I hereby give to the said J. H. Page Statutory lien on entire Crop of Corn and Cotton to be raised by me and family during the year 1877 also I hereby waive my rights of Exemption as to the Constitution of Alabama as provided for by section 1858 of the Revised Code of Alabama and to further secure the payment of the note above note and said advances I hereby bargain sell and Convey unto the said J. H. Page his heirs and assigns forever the following described property to wit: One red Cow four years old, marked crop and half crop in left and crop and split in the right Ear. Now if the said note and sums advanced and to be advanced are paid up on or before first day of ~~December~~ November 1877, then this Conveyance to be void and of no effect but if should fail to pay off the said sums of money at the time and in the manner aforesaid, or should sell or attempt to sell the said property
