Before me the undersigned authority personally appeared J.H. Hardy who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says that he knew Prince Eiland during his life and that he also knows the widow Clara Eiland.

That on or about the year of 1885 James H Hardy and wife Louisa A. Hardy, executed to Prince Eiland a deed to the following described property, to-wit:

One acre of land in the North east corner of the southwest quarter of the North west quarter lying just south of L & N. Railroads Company's Y tracks in Calera, Section 2, Township 24, Range 13 East.

That the said Prince Eiland was during his life in open notorious and peaceable possession of said above described property. That since his death in the year of 1908 his wife Clara Eiland has been in open notorious and peaceable possession of said above described land.

That the above facts are true in every detail and particular arrived at from actual personal knowledge of my own.

J.H. Hardy

Sworn to and subscribed before me on this the 27th day of December 1922.
