Hoskins Gat
To
Parker Armstrong & Co

The State of Alabama
Shelby County

On or before 1st day of November 1879 promise to pay to the order of Parker, Armstrong & Co. Thirty dollars, for value received. The right of exemption, under the laws of Alabama is hereby waived, as provided for in Section 7, Article 10 in the Constitution of the State of Alabama.

The consideration of this obligation is an advancement made by said Parker, Armstrong & Co. of money and provisions to the above amount, "bona fide", for the purpose of making a crop this year 1879, and without which it would not be in my power to procure the requirements to make such crop, and I hereby declare the aforesaid advances, or the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on my crop grown on the Wilson plantation, in Shelby County, Alabama, this year, in accordance with the Act approved January 15th 1866; and to further secure the payment of the aforesaid obligation, according to the tenor and effect thereof I hereby also bargain, sell and convey to the said Parker, Armstrong & Co or agent or assign the follow-described personal property, to wit: One bay Stallion Seven years old.

For the sum of Thirty dollars which amount has been paid to me and for which receipt is hereby given. In default of payment at maturity of the aforesaid obligation the said Parker, Armstrong & Co, or agent or assign is hereby authorized to take said property into their possession, sell the same as they may deem best, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of this obligation and expenses incident to the execution of this trust; upon this condition, nevertheless, if said obligation is paid at maturity, this conveyance is null and void. And it is further agreed if the said Parker & Armstrong & Co shall advance to the said Gat Hoskins during the present year any money or provisions over and above the amount of said note, this instrument shall also stand as security for the same as fully as if included in said note.

And the said Gat Hoskins hereby declare that the above conveyed property is his own, and that there is no lien or incumbrance on the same. In further consideration of the premises, I hereby also declare that there will be no outside crops on the place owned by my wife, daughter, or any one whatsoever, but that this instrument is to constitute a lien on the entire crop raised on the place this year by me.
