No.

The United States of America,

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas [illegible] has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at [illegible] whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said [illegible] according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the [illegible] of [illegible] entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of Public Lands" for [illegible]

[illegible] the official plat of the survey of the said Lands returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said [illegible]

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the [illegible] of Congress in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant unto the said [illegible] and to [illegible] heirs the said tract above described; [illegible] together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances of whatsoever nature, thereunto belonging, unto the said [illegible] and [illegible] heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I,

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office, to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the [illegible] day of [illegible] in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and [illegible] and of the Independence of the United States the [illegible]

By [illegible]

[illegible]

Commissioner of the General Land Office.
