Lawhon A. D.
To Lawhon Ore Co.

Whereas the Lawhon Ore Co. of Montevallo Shelby County, Ala, built a stone house on the land of A. D. Lawhon near his residence near Montevallo with his permission and at his request, now this indenture is to witness that said stone building is the property of the said Lawhon Ore company with right of access, commonly to the same, and with right to use the same for any purpose except the sale of liquors and to remove it at their pleasure for the term of five years from date, hereof without rent for the land which it occupies and for the space of fifteen feet around the same.

At the end of five years from date, hereof and upon thirty days notice by said Lawhon Ore Co. shall remove the same, but if they shall decide to sell it then said Lawhon shall have the refusal of the same at price any other pur= chaser may offer for it in cash or its equivalent Witness our hands & seals this the 13th day of January 1885.
