Perry Wesley To Houston King

(5 ia)

The State of Alabama } Montevallo, May 5th 1885.
Shelby County } For and in consideration of the sum of $20.00 — twenty dollars — I, Wesley Perry, husband of the late Amanda Perry, and acting for her children, do hereby sell, assign, transfer, set over and deliver unto Houston King, the following described lot of ground: viz: One acre of land situated about one mile from the town of Montevallo, near the old Tuscaloosa road, and in what is known as the "old gallows field" belonging to estate of F. R. King deceased; said acre lying in Section 20, T 22 R 3 West, and bounded on the north by lands of King Estate, South by lands of C. C. Vandegrift, East by lot already owned by Houston King and land of King estate — the said lot of ground being one square acre, commencing for measurement on the line of C. C. Vandegrift, in rear of double log house, and running back in a northerly direction so as to embrace one acre. To have and to hold unto unto the said Houston King his heirs, and assigns forever.
