in Chancery in & for said county & State J. M. Reynolds, who being first duly sworn deposes and says; that he was the husband of Mrs Fannie B. Reynolds during and prior to the year 1884 and after said time until her death, she being now dead. That the mortgage executed by M. P. Reynolds and wife M. H. Reynolds to Mrs. L. H. Lyman on or about January 5th 1882, for $400 was transferred and endorsed by the said Mrs Lyman to Mrs Fannie B. Reynolds on February 18th 1884. That said mortgage has been paid, satisfied and discharged in full; that the amount to pay and satisfy said mortgage was paid by the mortgagor to myself as the husband and Agent of Mrs. Fannie B. Reynolds and the said mortgage after having been so paid in full was delivered to the mortgagor; that by negligence the mortgage was not marked satisfied on the margin of the records as it should have been after having been so fully paid.
