Montgomery County } that whereas I George N Gilmer married my wife Rebecca L Gilmer in the state of Louisiana in the year 1861 where we both then resided and whereas my said wife at the time of said marriage owned large estate then in said state of Louisiana which by the laws of that state remained and continued to be her individual property and by the laws of that state I am liable to her for so much of said property or the rents income and profits of said property as I may have converted to my own use and whereas during the year 1862 I sold and disposed of one hundred and twenty five bales of cotton at 12½ cents per pound amounting in the aggregate to about seven thousand eight hundred and twelve 50/100 dollars the same being the property of my said wife as aforesaid and whereas since the termination of the late war I have received and made use of thirteen thousand five hundred dollars of the income and profits of the said property of my wife, and whereas I am indebted to my said wife under the laws of Louisiana for both of said sums besides interest thereon now therefore in consideration of the premises and to secure to my said wife in part the repayment of said indebtedness I have granted bargained sold and conveyed and do and do hereby grant, bargain sell and convey to Morgan S Gilmer in trust for my said wife Rebecca
