Sammy Ray Bryson, et. al. vs. Central Electric Co., et al.

| DATE    | ACTIONS  |
|---------|--|
| 1/19/82 | Default judgment having been entered against the defendant, Jessie R. Camp on December 7, 1981, upon defendant, Jessie R. Camp's failure to appear at the call of this case on the trial docket, and the defendant not being an infant nor unrepresented incompetent person, and proof having been made to the reasonable satisfaction of the court of the truth of the averments of each of the following plaintiffs respectively, and the court having determined the amount of each of the following plaintiffs damages respectively to be:         |
|         | Roy Don Bevis, $3,204.66  |
|         | James Gregory Tucker, $8,132.51   |
|         | John E. Roberts, $258.00  |
|         | Horace Lamar Brannum, Jr., $4,417.43  |
|         | Sammy Ray Bryson, $5,436.05   |
|         | Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Roy Don Bevis and against the defendant, Jessie R. Camp in the sum of $3,204.66.  |
|         | Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, James Gregory Tucker and against the defendant, Jessie R. Camp in the sum of $8,132.51.   |
|         | Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, John E. Roberts and against the defendant, Jessie R. Camp in the sum of $258.00.  |
|         | Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Horace Lamar Brannum, Jr. and against the defendant, Jessie R. Camp in the sum of $4,417.43.  |
|         | Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Sammy Ray Bryson and against the defendant, Jessie R. Camp in the sum $5,436.05.  |
|         | It is the further judgment of this court that the Honorable Ed Ramsey, Attorney at Law, is entitled to an attorney fee for representing the plaintiffs in this cause as provided for by Sec. 39-4-15 of the 1975 Code of Alabama, and upon proof presented, the court is satisfied that a reasonable attorney's fee for his representation of these plaintiffs is the sum of $4,960.00, therefore, it is ordered and adjudged that the defendant, Jessie R. Camp pay to Attorney Ed Ramsey the sum of $4,960.00 for his representation in this case. |
|         | All costs taxed to the defendant, Jessie R. Camp.  |
