Boomer & Boschert Press Co.,

$500.00 Syracuse, N.Y. March 9 - 1904.

Received of Boomer & Boschert Press Co, 1 all Iron Knuckle Joint Press 100 tons, 48" between rods 30" across base 32" when closed 72" when open, Power attachment & Frame automatic shifting device upon hire for the use thereof, and to be carefully kept and preserved by us and returned to said Boomer & Boschert Press Co., unless we shall purchase the same, which we have the privilege of doing provided we first pay the sum of Five hundred Dollars, with Annual Interest from date, upon which cash, Dollars, and which we have given our promissory notes, payable as follows note dated March 9 1904 for $500.00 and due in 60 days: But if the sum is not paid in full, with Annual Interest, then any and all payments are to be treated as rent paid for the use of said property as above described. But nothing herein shall be construed as giving us any title to said property, or right to dispose of the same or any part thereof, until the sum of $500.00 and Annual Interest, is fully paid we are not to remove said property from our present residence without said Boomer & Boschert Press Co's consent, and in case of such removal, or neglect to purchase and pay, as above provided, they may take said property into their possession and retain all moneys received by them for rent of same, or collect said note at their election, and if collected with costs, then [but not before] the title to said property shall vest in us.

Silvria Cotton Mill Co.

Shipped to Silvria, Ala.

By Brevard D. Miller

Secy & Treas.

P. O. Silvria, Ala.

Press to be insured with loss payable to the Press Co as their interest may appear.

Filed for record March 25th 1904 and recorded.

A. P. Longshore,

Judge of Probate.