Helena Ala, /08

Mr C.T. Davidson,
Helena, Ala.

Dear Sir;

This Confirms Verbal agreement between us whereby you are to lease to us for a period of ten years with the privilege of our extending said lease at its expiration for another ten years. The lease to embrace a certain strip of land 15 feet wide as well as the necessary slope for the dirt fill extending from the L & N Right of way on the North side of Dome and leading to our property line between your mill and our Commissary building according to the present survey by the L & N Railroad. This strip of land to be used for side track and R.R. purposes for the handling of the finished material to and from our plant for the Consideration sum of Five (5.00) dollars per year, payable yearly in advance.
As soon as the exact measurements are obtained it is agreed that the lease between us of the usual form will be executed. It is also understood that C.T. Davidson has the privilege of shipping to and from his mill over the track and use it to put in a Coal dump for him near the oak tree.

Accepted
C.T. Davidson.

Weymouth Barnes.
