State of Alabama,
Jefferson County,
City of Birmingham.

Be it Known that whereas Goodall Brown & Company, a Co-partnership which has been since succeeded by the Corporation of Goodall Brown Dry Goods Company, said Corporation having acquired all of the assets and assumed all the liabilities of said Co-partnership, heretofore in or about the year 1912, recovered a judgment against C. H. Chisser in one of the Courts of record of Shelby County, Alabama, and

Whereas, the said C. H. Chisser subsequent to the recovery of said judgment made to Goodall Brown & Company, a Mortgage securing the same indebtedness as evidenced by said judgment, and

Whereas, the said Mortgage and the indebtedness thereby secured has been heretofore transferred and assigned in writing by Goodall Brown Dry Goods Company to Ben J. Falkner of Shelby County, Alabama, and,

Whereas, in making the transfer of said Mortgage and said indebtedness no specific transfer of the judgment above referred to was made,

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and to remedy aforementioned omission the Goodall Brown Dry Goods Company, a Corporation, in its right as successors of Goodall Brown & Company, does hereby transfer, assign and set over unto the said J. Falkner all its right, title and interest in the aforesaid judgment, or the judgment being the only judgment upon the records of said Shelby County, recorded by Goodall Brown & Company against said O. Chesser.

Done at Birmingham, Alabama, this February 7th 1916.
