State of Connecticut } Whereas, J. L. Watrous and wife Rosella,
New Haven County } did heretofore on, to-wit, October 29, 1914, execute a mortgage to Albert N. Butler and to W. E. Crittenden, to secure the payment of two notes for five thousand $ ($5000) dollars each, payable respectively November 1, 1915 and November 1, 1916, with 6% interest from date, payable annually, which said mortgage is recorded in Book 110, page 119, record of mortgages in the office of the Probate Judge of Shelby County, Alabama.
And Whereas since the execution of said mortgage, said Albert N. Butler has died, and the undersigned Amy H. Butler has been and is now the duly appointed qualified and acting executrix of the will and estate of said Albert N. Butler, deceased, having been duly appointed by The Court of Probate for the District of Meriden in the County of New Haven, Connecticut, a Court of competent jurisdiction for said purpose, a duly certified copy of which said appointment is hereto attached, referred to and marked Exhibit A, and made a part hereof.
And Whereas said two notes for five thousand ($5,000) dollars, each, together with interest thereon, and the entire indebtedness secured by said mortgage, have been fully paid.

Now Therefore: We the undersigned Amy H. Butler, as executrix of the will and estate of said Albert N. Butler, deceased, and W. E. Crittenden, the surviving mortgagee named in said mortgage, have and do hereby acknowledge full satisfaction and payment of said mortgage indebtedness and said mortgage, and have and do hereby constitute and appoint A. P. Slaughter, Judge of Probate Court of Shelby County, Alabama, our true and lawful attorney for us, and in our name to enter satisfaction of said mortgage upon the record thereof, in the Probate office of said Shelby County, Alabama, giving and granting unto him full power and authority to do whatsoever may be necessary in the premises, expressly ratifying and confirming all that may be lawfully done by our said attorney in the premises.

Witness our hands, this first day of November, 1916.

Witness: Patrick T. O'Brien
Agnes M. Conklin.
