L. Thompson for

the sum of One Thousand four hundred and Seventy four ($1474.) Dollars, that being the highest and best bid for the same, after the time, place and terms of the sale, together with a description of said lands, had been advertised for a period of 26 days in the Shelby County News, a newspaper published in said County. And whereas said sale was duly reported by said Executor and on the 29th day of December 1918, the same was confirmed by an order of said Court. And whereas, the whole of said purchase money has been paid and said Court upon the application of said Executor hath ordered a conveyance of said lands to be made by said Executor to said purchaser thereof according to law.

Now therefore, this instrument witnesseth, that the said J. B. Doris as such Executor as aforesaid hath in accordance with the order of said Court, conveyed and confirmed, and by this instrument doth convey and confirm unto the said J. B. Thompson his heirs and assigns forever, all claim, right, title and interest which the said Sallie L. Doris Deceased, had at the time of her death in and to the land aforesaid.

In Witness Whereof, the said Executor hath hereunto set my hand and seal this 3rd day of Feby 1919.
