State of Alabama, } Before me, T. H. Whatley, a Notary
Shelby County } Public and Ex Officio Justice of the Peace in and for Beat Three, Shelby County, Alabama, personally appeared J. G. Frost, who, being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says, that he was acquainted with William Harkins, Zilla Harkins and Balus Oldham, during their life time.

Further deposing affiant says on oath that said Zilla Harkins on the 31st day of May, 1870, was the wife of William Harkins who was the grantor named in a certain deed bearing said date and recorded in Deed Book Q, at page 64, in the Probate Office of Shelby County Alabama.

Further deposing affiant says on oath that after the said William Harkins' death the said Zilla Harkins, his widow, married said Balus Oldham.

Further deposing affiant says on oath that said Zilla Oldham died prior to the year 1878.

Further deposing affiant says on oath that said William Harkins at the time of the execution of said deed to Zilla Harkins on the 31st day of May, 1870, was in possession of the land described in said deed, which, as before stated, is recorded in the Probate office of Shelby County, Alabama, in Deed Book Q, at page 64, and from the date of said deed down to the time of her death said Zilla Harkins was in possession of the same claiming to own it, and that after her death her administrators were in possession of the same, claiming to own it, as such, down to the time the same was conveyed by Administrators deed to Robert C. Wilson, as shown by deed recorded in the Probate office of Shelby County County, Alabama, in Deed Book 21 at page 521, which said deed is dated August 6th, 1883.

Further deponent affiant says that Robert C. Wilson was in possession of said land claiming to own the same from the date he received said deed from said administrators down to the time he conveyed the same to Sarah E. Wilson his wife on November 27th 1891 by deed recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Deed Book 16 at page 68, and that said Sarah E. Wilson remained in possession of said land from the date of the deed to her by her husband until she deeded the same to W. H. Boyd, as shown by deed recorded in Deed Book 23 at page 537, in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama.

J. G. Frost.
