The State of Alabama } Before me, H^m Lyman, a Notary Shelby County. } Public in and for said County in said State, personally appeared John T. Wilson, who being duly sworn deposes and says that he is over 80 years of age and resides in Montevallo, Ala. that he has lived in and near Montevallo all his life; that he married a daughter of Wm. H. Moore, late of said County; that he has been well acquainted with the place now owned and occupied by Jas. C. Nabors, being that part of the E½ of the S.W.¼ of Section 2, Township 22, Range 3 West lying West of the Montevallo and Ashville road, South of the Tuscaloosa and Columbiana road and East of the Spring branch, 44 acres two acres in the North East Corner of said tract that said Wm. H. Moore in his life time, did not claim the said part of E½ of S.W.¼ lying West of the road; that affiant has known said land since before the Civil War; that Wm. L. Prentice claimed said land when affiant first knew it, and the same has been in the open, notorious, actual possession and has been enclosed and cultivated by said Wm. L. Prentice and those claiming under him, from the time affiant first knew said land before the Civil War, continuously until the present time; that said Wm. H. Moore was in the open, notorious, actual adverse possession of that part of said S½ of N.W.¼ of said Section 2, lying South of the Columbiana and Tuscaloosa road and West of the Montevallo and Ashville road from the time affiant first knew it, prior to the Civil War, up to the time of the death of said Moore and there was never any claimant adverse to him that affiant ever heard or knew of; that the only surviving heirs of said Wm. H. Moore, who died about the year 1888, were Joanna Wilson, his daughter, wife of affiant; Mary A. Farrington, his daughter, wife of J. W. Farrington, Sallie E. Wilson, his daughter, wife of R. C. Wilson and W. T. Moore, his grandson, the only child of John T. Moore, who was the son of said Wm. H. Moore, and died a widower, about the year 1878; that, representing the said heirs, the said W. T. Moore at that time being an unmarried man, affiant and said R. C. Wilson sold said lands and all the lands belonging to the estate of said Wm. H. Moore, who died intestate, at public sale, and French Nabors purchased at said sale the said part of S½ of N.W¼ of said Section 2, above described, except a water privilege reserved in the most Northerly Spring thereon, and subsequently in 1891, the purchase money having been paid, the said heirs executed deed to said French Nabors, in pursuance of said sale; that said French Nabors and those claiming under him have been in the open, peaceable, continuous, actual, adverse possession of the same ever since the said purchase; that J. C. Nabors has been in the open, peaceable, continuous, actual, adverse possession of all of said part of said S½ of N.W¼ of said Section 2 which lies East of the Spring branch except 2 acres in the Northeast Corner of same, for more than 20 years, all of it being enclosed and in cultivation except a few acres around the Springs in the Northwest Corner thereof; and said J. C. Nabors having built and occupied a residence for the last fifteen years on the part of said land possessed by him as aforesaid in the said S½ of N.W¼ of said Section 2; and there has never been any adverse claim to his thereto, that affiant knows or has ever heard of.

John T. Wilson

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 22nd day of March, 1920.
