State of Alabama, } Before me, the undersigned County of Jefferson } authority in and for said County in said State, this day personally appears A. Latady, who is a ~~cow~~-in-law of Samuel B. & Martha A. Stalbrook, after being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:
That he is informed that on May 12, 1887, a certain petition was filed in the Probate Court of Shelby County Alabama, wherein Franch Yates was petitioner, and B. G. Fletcher, Jno. S. Fletcher, Alice Fletcher and Gertrude Fletcher were defendants.
Affiant knows that at the time said petition was filed Mary F. Fletcher, a full sister of Lizzie B. Troy and Electra Storrs was dead, and that G. G. Fletcher, one of the defendants was the husband of said Mary F. Fletcher, deceased, and the other three defendants, i.e., John S., Alice and Gertrude Fletcher were the sole and only children of said Mary F. Fletcher, deceased. Affiant was also well acquainted with Electra S. Storrs and Lizzie B. Troy, who, together with Martha A. Holbrook and husband Samuel S. Holbrook, according to affiant's information, executed a deed July 5, 1887 in favor of Isaac T. Tichenor, and known that at the time said deed was alleged to have been executed, said Lizzie B. Troy, who was a daughter of John S. Storrs, deceased, and a sister-in-law of affiant, was a widow, and that Electra S. Storrs was a single woman.

A. Latady
