State of Alabama } Before me, Geo. H. Mason, Judge of Shelby County. } Probate, in and for Shelby County, Alabama personally appeared J. P. Parsons, who ~~being~~ duly sworn deposes and says as follows: I am sixty nine years old and have spent about fifty years of my life in Shelby County Alabama.
I knew Mrs Mollie C. Glaze in her life time and her husband C. H. Glaze in his life time. Mollie C. Glaze and M. Glaze are one and the same person.
During the year 1909 I resided at Creswell in Shelby County, Alabama, and was engaged in the business of farming and Mercantile, having my store in the little town of Creswell: Affiant further states that during said year 1909 he was Justice of the Peace in and for Beat 10 of Shelby County, Alabama. Affiant further states that a few days before the 21st day of May, 1909, Mrs Mollie C. Glaze came to his store at Creswell, Alabama, she being alone at such time, and asked me whether or not I was a Justice of the Peace, upon my reply that I was a Justice of the Peace she stated that she desired to make a deed to her husband C. H. Glaze to certain lands in Shelby County, Alabama, stating further that she owed her husband some money and this was the only way she had of paying same. Affiant further states that he thereupon asked Mrs Glaze the question if she knew the legal effect of her making her husband this deed, she replied that she did and explained that after the making, executing and delivery of said deed to C. H. Blaze that his heirs would inherit said land at his death. Affiant further states that he had no blank deeds at such time and did not make said deed on this occasion. Affiant further states that just a few days after the above occasion Mrs Mollie P. Blaze came to his store at Creswell and again requested that he prepare said deed for her, affiant further states that he informed Mrs Blaze that he was going to Birmingham the next day or right away and he would then procure some blank deeds and would prepare the same for her upon his return. Affiant further states that when he went to Birmingham as aforesaid he procured said blank deeds and shortly thereafter Mrs Mollie P. Blaze in company with her husband C. H. Blaze came to his store at Creswell and she again requested the writing of said deed. Affiant further states that the deed dated May 21st. 1909, signed Mrs M. Blaze and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Deed Record 43 on page 391 is a copy of the deed which I wrote Mrs Blaze signed before me, and of which I took the acknowledgment. I read over said deed and acknowledgment to her and she stated to me that she executed the said deed voluntarily on the day the same bore date understanding its contents. Affiant further states that C. H. Blaze, the husband of Mrs Mollie P. Blaze was not present nor in the store at the time said deed was written, signed, or at the time the said acknowledgment was taken. Affiant further states that said deed as recorded in Deed Record is a correct copy of said deed so made and executed by Mrs Mollie P. Blaze before him as said Justice of the Peace except that the said deed read so far as the consideration is concerned $1000.00 rather than $100.00.

Affiant further states that in all the conversation he had with Mrs Mollie P. Blaze he found her to be an exceptionally bright, intelligent, and well informed woman and fully capable of looking after her own business affairs. Affiant further states that he is not a relative to C. H. Blaze or any of his people nor those of Mrs Mollie P. Blaze, nor any of her people to which she may have been related either by blood or marriage.

J. P. Pearson.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10-th day of April, 1921.

G. M. Weaver

Judge of Probate.

State of Alabama }
Shelby County } I. G. M. Weaver, Judge of Probate, hereby certify that the within Affidavit was filed in this office for record 10-day of April, 1921, at 2 o'clock P. M. and recorded in Deed Record 68 Pages 312 - 310 - and examined.

G. M. Weaver

Judge of Probate