State of Alabama / Before me, G. H. Weaver, Judge Shelby County. / of Probate in and for said County in said State, personally appeared E. Stinson, who being duly sworn deposes and says that he knows

N. B. M. Stinson and Rosie James L. Smith in his life time, that on the 6th day of February 1884 said Stinson sold to James L. Smith the S.W¼ of S.W¼ of Section 6, Township 21, Range One (1) East, by mistake the deed read N.E¼ of S.W¼; that after the execution of said deed James L. Smith went into possession of S.W¼ of S.W¼ Sec. 6, Township 21 Range 1 East, occupied the same under a claim of ownership until he sold the same to one Whitfield. Affiant further states that the said James L. Smith at no time was in possession of no claim to no right, title or interest in and to the N.E¼ of S.W¼ Section 6, Township 21, Range 1 East. Affiant further states that the said N. B. M. Stinson after the execution of said deed to said Smith, he executed a deed to G. R. Mitchell conveying to him all of the East half of South West Quarter (E½ of S.W¼) of Section 6, Township 21, Range 1 East and the said Mitchell held possession of said property under a claim of ownership until he sold the same to other parties.
