Shelby County

Know all men by these presents that whereas, Jacob Snyderhouse and Wife R. E. Snyderhouse did, on the 29th day of September 1919, execute a mortgage to the undersigned, securing the sum of Seven Hundred and fifty ($750.00) Dollars, which said mortgage is recorded in Vol. 119 at page 278, Record of Mortgages in the Probate Office of aforesaid County and State, and whereas said mortgage remains unsatisfied upon said records and the said Jacob Snyderhouse and wife R. E. Snyderhouse are desirous of ~~[illegible]~~ executing a mortgage to C. E. Leonard securing the sum of Twelve hundred ($1,200.00) Dollars, which shall be a first lien upon the property described in mortgage to undersigned:

Now, therefore, the premises considered, undersigned does hereby consent and agree that the said Snyderhouse may execute to the said Leonard Mortgage as stated herein and that said Mortgage when executed shall be a first and paramount lien in all respects so far as the interest of undersigned or the mortgage in his favor referred to above are concerned.

Witness my hand this the 21 day of Apr. 1922.
