If the Mortgagor fails to keep the Real Estate insured as specified above then, at the election of the Mortgage and without notice to any person, the Mortgagee may declare the entire Debt due and payable and this mortgage subject to foreclosure, and this mortgage subject to foreclosure, the Mortgagee provided; and, regardless of whether the Mortgagee declares the entire Debt due and payable and this mortgage subject to foreclosure, the Mortgagee may, but shall not be obligated to, insure the Real Estate for its full insurable value (or for such lesser amount as the Mortgagee may wish) against such risks of loss, for its own benefit, the proceeds from such insurance (less the cost of collecting same), if collected, to be credited against the Debt, and risks of loss, for its own benefit, the proceeds may be used in repairing or reconstructing the improvements located on the Real Estate.
