STATE OF ALABAMA, #2805

SHELBY COUNTY.

Personally came and appeared before me Lilla Juzan a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State Handy Ellis, who after being first by me duly sworn according to law to speak the truth deposes and says:

I am a practicing attorney of the Shelby County, Alabama Bar and have been for many years, I ~~have~~ represented for many years the J. M. Steverson Lumber Company and know of my own personal knowledge that this Company was never incorporated, but was merely a trade name used by a partnership composed of J. M. Steverson and his sons, Hugh J. Steverson and John Frank Steverson. Before his death, J.M. Steverson purchased the interest of John Frank Steverson and the partnership was composed of J.M. Steverson and his son, Hugh J. Steverson and there were never any other members of this partnership.

The John M. Steverson referred to in the deed of Hugh J. Steverson to Hugh J. Steverson, John Frank Steverson and W.M. Carlisle, as executors of the Last Will and Testament of John M. Steverson, deceased dated November 26, 1949, and recorded in Deed Book 141 at page 94 in the Office of the Judge of Proba te for Shelby County, Alabama, refers to one and the same person as J.M. Steverson, who was a member of said partnership and whose Will was filed on October 29, 1949 in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County. Alabama.
