AFFIDAVIT

#3281

STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

Before the undersigned authority personally appeared Tom Yessick, who is known to me and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am acquainted with the N½ of the NE¼, Section 28, Township 21, Range 3 West, Shelby County, Alabama, and have known this land all of my life and I am now fifty-six years of age. No railroad runs across this tract of land but the Southern Railroad runs in a generally northerly and southerly direction across the NE¼ of NW¼ of said Section. In fact, there are about six acres between the railroad and the land now owned by Mr. H.C. Evans, the western forty of which is the NW¼ of SE¼ of said Section 28.

The J.S. Kellum land in 1918, did not embrace any of the N½ of NE¼ of Section 28 and the property deeded by John Yessick to J.S. Kellum was six acres lying between the Railroad and the west line of the NE¼ of NW¼ of Section 28, Township 21, Range 3 West.

This the 23rd day of March, 1950.

Tom Yessick

Sworn and subscribed to before me on this the 23rd day of March, 1950.
