MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE DEED

STATE OF ALABAMA
COUNTY OF SHELBY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that whereas, heretofore, on to wit: July 19, 1990, Gerald W. Espey and wife, Linda D. Espey executed a certain mortgage on property hereinafter described to Central State Bank, a state banking corporation, which said mortgage is recorded in Real Record 304, Page 736, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama;

WHEREAS, in and by said mortgages, the mortgagee was authorized and empowered in case of default in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, according to the terms thereof, to sell said property in Shelby County, Alabama, after giving notice of the time, and place and terms of said sale in some newspaper published in said County by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks prior to said sale at public outcry for cash to the highest bidder, and said mortgage provided that in case of sale under the power and authority contained in same, the mortgagee or any person conducting said sale for the mortgagee was authorized to execute title to the purchaser at said sale; and it was further provided in and by said mortgage that the mortgagee may bid at the sale and purchase said property if the highest bidder therefor; and

WHEREAS, default was made in the payment of that certain promissory note secured by said mortgages and Central State Bank elected to declare the entire indebtedness secured by said mortgages immediately due and payable under the acceleration provisions contained in said mortgages. Central State Bank did give due and proper notice of foreclosure of said mortgages by publication in The Shelby County Reporter, a newspaper of general circulation, published in Shelby County, Alabama, in its issues of May 22, 29, and June 5, 1991, a notice stating that under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgages the said Central State Bank, as mortgagee, would sell at public outcry, for cash to the highest bidder, within the legal hours of sale, on the 17th day of June, 1991, the property described in said mortgages, the description of which is hereinafter set out; and

WHEREAS, on June 17, 1991, the day on which the foreclosure sale was due to be held under the terms of said notice, between the legal hours of sale, said foreclosure sale was duly conducted and Central State Bank, as mortgagee by and through V. Wayne Causey, its attorney-in-fact, and as auctioneer did offer said property for sale at public outcry in front of the front door of the Shelby County Courthouse in Columbiana, Alabama, to the highest bidder for cash, and at said sale, Central State Bank, became the purchaser of said property at and for the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars and no/100 ($50,000.00) the said Central State Bank, pursuant to the terms of the mortgages, by and through V. Wayne Causey as auctioneer conducting said sale, does hereby grant, bargain, sell and convey unto Central State Bank, the following described property situated in Shelby County, Alabama, to-wit:
