ORDER

The Court has considered Plaintiff Mitsubishi International Corporation's Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Preliminary Injunction and Other Relief, and the accompanying Brief, Complaint and Affidavits submitted therewith. It appears to the Court that Plaintiff Mitsubishi International Corporation ("Plaintiff" or "Mitsubishi") has a substantial likelihood of prevailing on the merits of one or more of its claims against Defendants; that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage will result to Plaintiff unless a restraining order is issued against Defendants; that the threat and injury to Plaintiff substantially outweigh any threat and harm the injunctive relief may do the Defendants; and granting injunctive relief will serve the public interest.

It further appears to the Court that Plaintiff is entitled to an immediate equitable accounting and expedited discovery to insure that all misappropriated funds and any properties purchased therewith are accounted for; it further appears that Plaintiff's counsel has notified Defendants or Defendants' counsel of this hearing.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that pending a hearing on Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction, ~~or the expiration of ten days from the date hereof,~~ or further Order of the Court, the Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees and attorneys, and all persons acting in concert with them, be and hereby are temporarily restrained from dissipating, transferring, pledging, encumbering, selling, disposing of, or making any other use of any and all monies received, directly or indirectly, from Joseph L. Smith or Sun-Fibres, Inc.; any and all monies received, directly or indirectly, as a result of yarn or fiber transactions involving Mitsubishi or Mitsubishi funds; and any and all real or personal properties purchased in whole or in part with such monies. This Order extends to all such monies wherever they may be traced and whether kept separate or commingled with other monies.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, and each of them, provide to the Court and to Plaintiff's counsel on or before July 12, 1991, a full and complete accounting with respect to all monies received, directly or indirectly, from Joseph L. Smith or Sun-Fibres, Inc., and all monies received, directly or indirectly, as a result of any and all yarn and fiber transactions involving Mitsubishi or Mitsubishi funds. Such accountings shall fully account for all such monies from the time of receipt through any use or disposition of such monies, and wherever such monies may be traced. Any and all real or personal property purchased with such funds shall be described with sufficient particularity to permit the Court to place a lien on or otherwise take direct judicial action with respect to such properties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants serve by hand delivery responses to Plaintiff's First Interrogatories and Requests for Production (a representative sample of which is attached hereto) and produce all responsive documents not protected by the attorney client privilege, on or before July 12, 1991. Further, Plaintiff shall be permitted to commence third party depositions immediately.*

SO ORDERED, this 3rd day of July 1991.

United State District Court Judge

* Defendants are ~~ordered~~ ^{ordered} to show cause before this Court on July 18, 1991, at 1:30 p.m., why a preliminary injunction and the other relief sought in -3- Plaintiff's Motion should not be granted.

2. The date of the July 18, 1991 show cause hearing is extended to August 5, 1991 at 9:30 a.m.
3. The time for Defendants to respond to Plaintiff's First Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents (a representative sample of which is attached to the July 3 Order) as set forth in the July 3 Order is extended as follows: First, as to each Interrogatory and Request for Production for the time period January 1, 1991 through the time of responses, the time for service by hand-delivery is extended to 5:30 p.m. on July 22, 1991. Second, as to each Request for Production and Interrogatory for the time period January 1, 1989 through December 31, 1990, the time for service by hand-delivery is extended to 5:30 p.m. on July 26, 1991.

4. The Defendants may utilize monies that might otherwise be deemed to be subject to the temporary restraining provisions of the July 3 Order to retain a certified public accountant qualified as to accounting practices in Georgia to perform the accounting required in the July 3 Order and to pay the reasonable and customary expenses associated with said accounting.

5. In all other respects, the July 3 Order remains in full force and effect, including but not limited to the temporary restraining provisions set forth on page 2 of said Order, provided, however, that a Defendant may enter into transactions or incur expenditures expressly authorized by Plaintiff in writing.

6. Any party may apply to the Court for further modification of the July 3 Order or this Order regarding the subject of the use of monies or other property to conduct ordinary business operations or to address circumstances not presently known or foreseeable, provided that the parties shall in good faith attempt to reach agreement on any such matters before application is made to the Court. Plaintiff may seek relief for any violation of the July 3 Order or this Order.

SO ORDERED, this 12th day of July, 1991.
