Before there can be a valid sale or transfer of any of the common shares of the Corporation by any holder thereof, such holder shall first offer said shares to the Corporation and then to the other holders of common shares in the following manner:

Within thirty (30) days thereafter, the Corporation shall have the right to purchase such shares so offered at the price and on the terms and conditions stated in the notice, provided however, that the Corporation shall not at any time be permitted to purchase all of its outstanding voting shares. Should the Corporation fail to purchase the shares at the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, or prior thereto decline to purchase the shares, the Secretary of the Corporation shall, within five (5) days thereafter, mail or deliver to each of the other common shareholders of record a copy of the notice given by the shareholder to the Secretary. Such notice may be delivered to the shareholders personally, or may be mailed to them at their last known address as such address may appear on the books of the Corporation. Within fourteen (14) days after the mailing or delivering of the copies of the offers to the shareholders, any such shareholder or stockholder desiring to acquire any part of all of the shares referred to in the notice shall deliver by mail, or otherwise, to the Secretary of the Corporation a written offer or offers, expressed to be acceptable immediately, to purchase a specified number of such shares at the price and on the terms stated in the notice. (2) If the total number of shares specified in the offers to purchase exceeds the number of shares to be sold or transferred, each offering shareholder shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of such shares as the number of shares of the Corporation which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all shareholders desiring to purchase the shares.

(3) If all of the shares to be sold or transferred are not disposed of under such apportionment, each shareholder desiring to purchase such shares in a manner in excess of his proportionate share, as provided above, shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of those shares which remain thus undisposed of, as the total number of shares which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all of the shareholders desiring to purchase shares in excess of those to which they are entitled under such appointment.

(4) If within said fourteen (14) day period, the offer or offers to purchase aggregate less than the number of shares to be sold or transferred, the shareholder desiring to sell or transfer such shares shall not be obligated to accept any such offer or offers and may dispose of all of the shares referred to any person or persons whomsoever; provided however, that he shall not sell or transfer such shares at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser or transferee than those specified in his notice to the Secretary of the Corporation.
