The Postal Service will give the Seller notice of election to purchase at least six months in advance of the respective times set forth above. Upon said notice by the Postal Service, this purchase agreement is effective and binding on the parties.

The terms and conditions of this agreements are as follows:

- 1. The purchase price set forth in this Option to Purchase Rider is payable after approval by the Postal Service of the Seller's title and execution and delivery by the Seller of a good and sufficient general warranty deed conveying said land with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging to the United States Postal Service and its assigns in fee simple. Conveyance of title must be free and clear from all liens and encumbrances, except those specifically excepted or reserved in the lease, together with all right, title, and interest of the Seller to any streams, alleys, roads, streets, ways, strips, gores, or railroad rights-of-way abutting or adjoining said land.
- 2. It is agreed that the Postal Service will pay the expenses incident to the preparation and recordation of the deed to the Postal Service and for procurement of the little evidence, deemed necessary by the Postal Service.
- 3. The Seller agrees that all taxes, assessments, and encumbrances, which are valid liens against the land at the time of conveyance to the Postal Service, must be satisfied of record by the Seller at or before the transfer of title. The Seller will, at the request of the Postal Service and without prior payment or tender of the purchase price, execute and deliver the general warranty deed to the Postal Service and obtain and record such curative evidence of title as may be required by the Postal Service. If the Seller fails to satisfy any such liens or to secure such curative evidence as required, the Postal Service may pay said liens and cure such defects and deduct from the purchase price any costs incurred. The Seller agrees to take all actions necessary, in a diligent manner, to effect transfer of title in accordance with the terms of this agreement.
- 4. The Seller agrees that loss or damage to the property by fire or acts of God are at the risk of the Seller until the title to the land and deed have been accepted by the Postal Service through its duly authorized representative. In the event that such loss or damage occurs, the Postal Service may, without liability, refuse to accept conveyance of title, or the Postal Service may elect to accept conveyance of title to such property, in which case there must be an equitable adjustment of the purchase price.
- 5. The Seller's spouse, it any, agrees to join in any deed to the Postal Service and to execute any instrument necessary to convey any separate or community estate or interest in the subject property to the Postal Service. The spouse also agrees to relinquish and release any dower, curtesy, homestead, or other rights or interests therein.
- 6. The terms and conditions of this agreement apply to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of the Seller.
- 7. All terms and conditions with respect to this agreement are expressly contained herein. The Seller agrees that no representative or agent of the Postal Service has made any representation or promise with respect to this agreement not expressly contained herein.
- 8. The terms and conditions of the lease in effect at the time of the exercise of the option to purchase by the Postal Service will remain in effect until closing of the purchase, whether or not the original term of the lease or renewal option period has expired. If, for any reason, the sale cannot be consummated, the notice of election to purchase will, at the sale option of the Postal Service, be deemed a limely notice to renew within the terms of the lease.
