H. P. DEBARDELEBEN, Deceased, Estate of } Probata Court
Order Probating his will } January 7th, 1911

Percy, which was heretofore "bled in this court for the probate of an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of said decedent, now comes said applicant and moves the lour: that said application be granted. And it appearing to the Satisfaction of the lourt, that the following heirs of said decedent, Charlie T. BeBardeleben, Ar thur H. Defardeleben, Henry T. BeBardeleben, Julia Belle Cooke
Trs. Katherine DeBardeleben and Mary Pratt Percy, have had notice of this proceeding, they having accepted service of notice of the filling of said petition to probate the will of said decedent, and writed all other or further notice, and entered their appearance in court on this day, their written acceptances being on file in this proceeding, and it also appearing that Wrs. Alice D. Catazano and Samuel DeBardeleben have had notice of the filing of said application and of the day set for hearing same by citation personally served upon them more that the days before this day. Now on motion of Talker Percy the Court proceeds to hear said application.

And it appearing to the datisfaction of the Court, from the testimony of T.

1. Poblinson, that he, together with the other subscribing witness, respectfully signed the said instrument of writing purporting to be the last will of said decedent, and which writing is now shown to him, on the day of the date thereof, in the presence of the testator, and at request as subscribing witnesses to the same, said testator them declaring, that said instrument constituted his last will, and it being also shown by proof which is satisfactory to the Court that the said testator was of full age of twenty-one years and upwards, at the time of making said will, and that he was of sound mind and fully capable of making his said will; it seems to the court that said application should be granted.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that said will of E. F. DeBardeleben, deceased, be received and said will is hereby declared to be duly proven as the last will and testament of said decedent, and as such admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded, together with matth the proof thereof, and all other papers on file relating to this proceeding. It is further ordered that said applicant has the costs of this proceeding.
