ARTICLE IX INDEMNITY

(a) Right to Indemnity. Every person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil criminal administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or a person to whom he is the legal representative is or was a manager or member of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a manager of another limited liability company, or as a director, officer or representative in a corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall be indemnified and held harmless to the fullest extent legally permissible under the laws of the State of Alabama from time to time against all expenses, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by him in connection therewith. Such right of indemnification shall be a contract right which may be enforced in any manner desired by such person. Such right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other right which such managers, members or representatives may have or hereafter acquire, and, without limiting the generality of such statement, they shall be entitled to their respective rights of indemnification under any operating agreement or other agreement, vote of members, provision of law, or otherwise, as well as their rights under this Article.

(b) Expenses Advanced. Expenses of managers and members incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding by reason of any act or omission of such managers or members acting as a manager or member shall be paid by the Company as they are incurred and in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding, upon receipt of any undertaking by or on behalf of the manager or member to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.

(C) Operating Agreement; Insurance. Without limiting the application of the foregoing, the members may adopt a provision in the operating agreement from time to time with respect to indemnification, to provide at all times the fullest indemnification permitted by the laws of the State of Alabama, and may cause the Company to purchase and maintain insurance or make other financial arrangements on behalf of any person who is or was a manager or member of the Company, or who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a member or manager of another limited liability company, or as its representative in a corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred in any such capacity or arising out of such status, to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the State of Alabama, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided in this Article shall continue for a person who has ceased to be a member, manager, employee or agent, and inures to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

ARTICLE XI RETURN OF CONTRIBUTIONS

A member may only demand cash in return for his or its contribution to capital but the Company may require a member to accept cash, property, promissory notes or any combination thereof in return for the member's contribution of capital

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned members have executed these Articles of Organization on this, the 25th day of April, 2006.
