

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF

Anza Ministries, Inc.

The undersigned, acting as incorporator of a nonstock, nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to Title 10, Chapter 3A of the Code of Alabama of 1975, as amended, Alabama Non-Profit Corporation Act (the "Act") for the purpose of forming such a corporation, hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE 1
NAME

The name of the nonstock, nonprofit corporation is Anza Ministries, Inc. (the "Corporation").

ARTICLE 2
PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for the following charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"):

- a. To be dedicated to humanitarian and educational activities, and counseling, in the United States and abroad, including raising financial support for such activities.
- b. To undertake the charitable procurement, installation, and maintenance of water purification systems in developing countries for provision of clean, potable water, and all activities related or incidental thereto.
- c. To build, own, organize, promote, support, staff, foster, and/or assist, financially and otherwise, counseling and educational retreat centers, in rural areas of the United States of America and abroad.
- d. To build, own, organize, promote, support, staff, foster, and/or assist, financially and otherwise, counseling and educational centers, orphanages, and/or child welfare agencies abroad and/or in the United States of America.
- e. To develop and disseminate educational curriculum and educational and counseling services in connection with the foregoing purposes.

Solely for the above purposes, the Corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the Act, so long as they are consistent with the requirements of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, including, but without limitation thereon, to participate, either directly or through a subordinate organization which is controlled by or affiliated with the Corporation, as a member, partner, associate or shareholder in a business organization in a manner that will permit the Corporation to act exclusively in furtherance of its charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

It is intended that this Corporation shall have the status of a corporation, which is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code. These Articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation shall be limited accordingly.

ARTICLE 3

REGULATION OF THE AFFAIRS OF THE CORPORATION

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to any of its directors, officers or any other private individual, entity or organization except that the Corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to make reimbursement for reasonable and appropriate expenses and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, if, at any time, the Corporation shall be determined to be a private foundation or private operating foundation as defined in Section 509 or Section 4942 of the Code, then:

- (a) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code or corresponding provision of any later federal tax laws;
- (b) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code or corresponding provision of any later federal tax laws;
- (c) The corporation shall not purchase nor retain any excess business holding as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code or corresponding provision of any later federal tax laws;
- (d) The corporation shall not make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code or corresponding provision of any later federal tax laws; and
- (e) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditure as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code or corresponding provision of any later federal tax laws.

ARTICLE 4 MEMBERSHIP

The Corporation shall have no members, nor shall it have or issue shares of capital stock.

ARTICLE 5 BYLAWS

Bylaws of the Corporation, as duly adopted or from time to time altered, amended, or repealed by the Board of Directors, shall set forth provisions for the regulation of the internal affairs of the Corporation, including, but not limited to: (1) the composition of and the manner for election and removal of the members of the Board of Directors consistent with the provisions of these Articles; (2) the composition and powers of committees of the Corporation or its directors; (3) the designations, qualifications and duties of officers of the Corporation, and the manner of their selection; and (4) such other matters as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 6 DISSOLUTION

The Board of Directors may authorize the dissolution of the Corporation by a majority of the directors. Upon the Corporation's dissolution, the Board of Directors shall direct the distribution of the Corporation's assets, after adequate provision for creditors shall have been made, to an organization or organizations, qualifying as charitable organizations pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Code to be used for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or to the federal, state, and/or local government for a public purpose. In selecting such organizations to which to distribute the Corporation's assets, the Board of Directors shall give first priority to any successor organization of the Corporation; and second, to any other organizations or governmental entity with the same or substantially similar purpose to the Corporation. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE 7 AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation may be made by the Board of Directors upon the majority vote of the directors.
