ARTICLE VI
Admission of New Members

The sole member of the Company shall have the right to admit new members from time to time. In the event the sole member has admitted new members, any additional members may be admitted only upon the unanimous written consent of the existing members, and such existing members shall determine the amount and nature of contributions by new members at the time such new members are admitted.

ARTICLE VII
Cessation of Membership

The cessation of membership of one or more members will not result in dissolution of the Company.

ARTICLE VIII

Management

The Company shall be managed by its sole member. The member shall have the right and authority to manage the business or affairs of the Company and to make all decisions with respect thereto, subject to the terms and conditions of the Company's Operating Agreement. In the event that additional members are admitted pursuant to Article VI, the Company shall be managed by its members, with each member having an equal right to participate in such management subject to the terms and conditions of the Company's Operating Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

Powers

The Company shall have the same powers as a natural person to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including, without limitation, the powers set forth in §10-12-4, Code of Alabama (1975), as the same may hereafter be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE X

Continuity of Business

Upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, dissolution, or dissociation of a member, or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, the business of the Company shall not be continued and the company shall be dissolved unless there is obtained the written consent of all the remaining members of the Company within 90 days after the occurrence of the terminating event.
