LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
MYRNA GENE LUNA

2-214647--

I, MYRNA GENE LUNA, a resident of Jefferson County,
State of Alabama, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this instrument as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils thereto heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE

I direct that all my just debts, including the expenses of my last illness and funeral, shall first be paid out of my estate by my executors, hereinafter named, as soon as possible after my death.

ITEM TWO

I give and bequeath all household furniture, furnishings and effects (including, without limitation,
appliances, furniture, furnishings, rugs, pictures, paintings, books, silver, plate, linen, china, glassware, antiques and objects of art), personal effects (including, without limitation, wearing apparel, jewelry, watches and all other articles of personal use or ornament) and automobiles owned by me at the time of my death and not otherwise effectively bequeathed, together with all policies of insurance relating thereto, to such of my children, Marsha Kim L. Contorno and Curtis Mark Luna, as survive me, to be divided between them by my executors, in my executors' sole and absolute discretion, in as nearly equal proportions as may be practicable, having due regard for the personal preferences of my children. If I am not survived by a child of mine, the gift provided by this Item shall lapse, and the property herein described shall become a part of my residuary estate.

MAJ

2-214647--

I hereby vest in my executors full power and authority to determine what items of property pass under the provisions of this Item.

I may leave a written memorandum expressing my desires as to the disposition or division of some of the property described above. I urge that my wishes as so expressed be carried out. I do not intend, however, to impose any trust or other enforceable obligation by any such written memorandum.

ITEM THREE

I give, devise and bequeath all of my right, title and interest in and to my real property located at Lay Lake in Shelby County, Alabama, to my grandson, Nicholas Dale Contorno, if he survives me, for the remainder of his life, with remainder in fee simple absolute on the death of Nicholas Dale Contorno to such of his brother and sister, Anthony Peter Contorno, III and Kristen Elizabeth Contorno, as may then be living, in equal shares or all to the survivor if only one of them is then living. If neither Nicholas Dale Contorno, Anthony Peter Contorno, III nor Kristen Elizabeth Contorno is living at the aforesaid designated point in time, then the gift provided by this ITEM THREE shall lapse, and the property herein described shall pass to my issue then living, per stirpes, subject to the provisions of ITEM SIX or ITEM SEVEN hereof.

If Nicholas Dale Contorno survives me, I direct that he shall pay all charges incident to maintaining said property during his lifetime, including without limitation, all assessments, insurance, taxes and ordinary repairs. Nicholas Dale Contorno shall not be required to account for or repair any waste, injury or damage to, or depreciation of, such property, or to replace any part thereof that may be consumed, used up or destroyed, whether or not the same results from action or neglect on his part. Nicholas Dale Contorno shall not be required to furnish or file in any court an inventory of the property herein devised to him for life, nor to give a bond or other security for the safekeeping thereof.

ITEM FOUR

My residuary estate (meaning thereby the rest and residue of the property of whatsoever kind and character and wheresoever situated belonging to me at the time of my death and over which I have the power of disposition) shall be disposed of as follows:

1. If any issue of mine survives me, my executors shall divide my residuary estate into a sufficient number of equal shares so that there shall be set aside one equal share for each child of mine surviving me and one equal share for the issue collectively surviving me of each child of mine who predeceases me leaving issue surviving me, such shares to be held or disposed of as follows:

A. With respect to each child of mine surviving me, I give, devise and bequeath one of such equal shares to him or her.

B. With respect to each child of mine who predeceases me leaving issue surviving me, my executors shall further divide one of such equal shares among such living issue, in equal shares per stirpes, and with respect to each living issue entitled to such share or a portion of such share, I give, devise and bequeath such share or such portion of such share to which he or she is entitled to him or her if he or she has attained the age of thirty-six (36) years, otherwise to the trustees hereinafter named, in trust, nevertheless, to be held, managed and disposed of as a separate trust for his or her benefit in accordance with the provisions of ITEM FIVE hereof.

2. If I am not survived by any issue of mine, I give, devise and bequeath my residuary estate to my heirs determined at my death.

ITEM FIVE

The following provisions shall govern each separate trust herein created for the primary benefit of a living issue of a deceased child of mine, such living issue being hereinafter referred to as the "beneficiary," and the trustees are directed as follows:

1. The trustees shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary so much, if any, of the net income or principal of the trust as the trustees, in the trustees' sole and absolute discretion, shall deem necessary or desirable for the beneficiary's support, maintenance, health and education, it being my intention that all or part or none of the net income or principal may be paid to the beneficiary. The trustees shall consider all resources and income of or available to the beneficiary from all sources reasonably known to the trustees. The beneficiary shall not have the right to require that any payment of income or principal be made to him or her, the decision of the trustees being final and binding on all persons. The trustees shall be fully discharged with respect to all amounts of income or principal paid to or for the benefit of the beneficiary without obligation on the part of the beneficiary to account therefor to the trustees or any person, firm or corporation. The net income or any part thereof not so paid shall be accumulated and added to and become a part of the principal of the trust.

2. The trust shall terminate on the first to occur of

A. The date the beneficiary attains the age of thirty-six (36) years, or

B. The date the beneficiary dies.

If the trust terminates on the date the beneficiary attains the age of thirty-six (36) years, the trustees shall transfer, convey and pay over, free of trust, the then remaining principal and undistributed income of the trust to the beneficiary.

If the trust terminates on the date of the death of the beneficiary, the trustees shall transfer, convey and pay over, free of trust except as provided in ITEM SIX or ITEM SEVEN hereof, the then remaining principal and undistributed income of the trust to the issue of the beneficiary living at the termination of the trust, in equal shares per stirpes, or if no issue of the beneficiary is living at the termination of the trust and if issue of mine is living at the termination of the trust, to such issue of mine as would be entitled to inherit the property constituting the same and in the proportions in which they would be entitled to inherit the same from the beneficiary under the laws of descent and distribution of Alabama relating to real property in force at the termination of the trust, had the beneficiary died immediately following the termination of the trust, domiciled in Alabama, intestate, unmarried, survived only by issue of mine and owned the same, whether or not the property being distributed is real, personal or mixed, or if no issue of mine is then living, to my heirs determined at the termination of the trust.

ITEM SIX

If any person becomes entitled to any share of the principal or undistributed income of any trust herein created on its termination and if such person has any other property then held in trust for his or her benefit under the provisions of this will, his or her share in the trust so terminating shall not be transferred, conveyed and paid over, free of trust, to him or her but shall be added to, merged with and administered and disposed of like such other property so held in trust for him or her.

ITEM SEVEN

If any person becomes entitled to any share of my estate on my death or of the principal or undistributed income of any trust herein created on its termination, if such person has no other property then held in trust for his or her benefit under this will and if such person shall not have attained the age of thirty-six (36) years on the date such person becomes so entitled to such share, then though the share of such person in my estate or in the trust so terminating shall then vest in him or her, his or her share shall not be transferred, conveyed and paid over, free of trust, to him or her, and the trustees shall hold the same in trust for him or her until he or she shall attain the age of thirty-six (36) years, using and applying for his or her support, maintenance, health and education such part of the net income from his or her share or of the principal thereof as the trustees deem necessary or desirable for said purposes; provided, however, if such person shall die prior to attaining the age of thirty-six (36) years, the trustees shall transfer, convey and pay over, free of trust, the then principal and undistributed income from his or her share to his or her estate.

ITEM EIGHT

The following provisions shall apply to each trust created under this will:

1. The trustees are authorized, but not required, to mingle the trust property of the separate trusts held under this will, allotting to each separate trust an undivided interest in the mingled funds.

2. All references in this will to "trustees" shall be deemed to include not only the original trustees but also any successor trustee; and all powers and discretions vested in the original trustees shall be vested in, and exercisable by, any such successor trustee.

3. If the happening of any future event may cause the ultimate vesting of any trust estate herein created or of any share therein to be extended under the provisions hereof to a time beyond that within which the same is required by law to become vested, then and in such event the trust as to said trust estate or as to such share therein shall continue only for as long a period of time as is allowed by law, at the end of which period the said trust as to said trust estate or as to such share therein shall terminate. In such case said trust or such share therein shall at the expiration of such period thereupon be vested in and distributed to the person for whose primary benefit the trust was created, or, if the trust was created for the primary benefit of more than one person, to such persons in the proportions in which they are so enjoying the same, irrespective of their attained ages.

4. The income of the trusts herein created at my death shall accrue from the date of my death, and until the trusts are established, I authorize my executors, in my executors' absolute discretion, from time to time and at any time, to pay out of my general estate to the respective income beneficiaries of such trusts, as advance payments of income, such sum or sums as, in my executors' judgment, are not in excess of the income which such income beneficiaries probably would have been entitled to receive from the said trusts had the same been established. Any such sum paid from the principal of my general estate shall be regarded merely as a temporary advance to be restored to the principal from income otherwise payable to the beneficiary to whom such advance shall have been made.

5. As to the net income which by any of the provisions of this will may be payable to any person, such person shall have no right or power, either directly or indirectly, to anticipate, charge, mortgage, encumber, assign, pledge, hypothecate, sell or otherwise dispose of same, or any part thereof, until same shall have been actually paid in hand to him or her by the trustees. Nor shall such income nor the principal or corpus of any trust estate nor any part of or interest in either of them be liable for or to any extent subject to any debts, claims or obligations of any kind or nature whatsoever or to any legal process in aid thereof, contracted or incurred by or for such person before or after my death.

6. The whole or any part of the income or principal of any trust payable to any beneficiary who, in the opinion of the trustees, is incapacitated through illness, age or other cause may, in the discretion of the trustees, be paid to such beneficiary or applied by the trustees for the benefit of such beneficiary or paid to the guardian of the person of such beneficiary.

ITEM NINE

1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this will, the following provisions shall be applicable:

A. If any trust created under this will would otherwise be partially exempt from the generation-skipping tax under Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, due to the allocation of a GST exemption to it, then, before such allocation and as of the relevant valuation date under Section 2642 of said Code with respect to such allocation, the trustees may (but need not) divide that trust (the "original trust") into two separate trusts of equal or unequal value which shall be identical in all other respects to the original trust, so that the allocation of the GST exemption can be made to one trust that will be entirely exempt from generation-skipping tax. Any two separate trusts created pursuant to this subparagraph A shall have the same name as the original trust, except that the trust to which the GST exemption is allocated shall have the phrase "GST exempt" added to its name.

M. J. S.

B. If property that is to be added or allocated to an existing trust pursuant to this will is subject to different treatment for any reason for purposes of the generation-skipping tax under Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code than property already held in that existing trust, then the trustees may (but need not) hold that property instead as a separate trust, which is appropriately designated to distinguish it from the existing trust to which the property otherwise would have been added or allocated, but which is identical in all other respects to that existing trust.

C. It is my intention that the trustees shall not be required to administer a trust hereunder that is only partially exempt from generation-skipping tax, or commingle property subject to different treatment for generation-skipping tax purposes, whether because the transferors with respect to the property are assigned to different generations or otherwise. The provisions of this paragraph 1 are intended to enable the trustees to avoid such situations by empowering the trustees to segregate trust property (i) that is entirely exempt from generation-skipping tax from trust property that is not exempt, or (ii) that is otherwise treated differently from other trust property for purposes of the generation-skipping tax, and the provisions of this paragraph 1 should be applied in a manner consistent with this intention.

2. To the extent it is consistent with the trustees' fiduciary obligations, the trustees shall seek to take advantage of any opportunities to avoid or delay generation-skipping tax when making discretionary distributions of income and principal from trusts created under this will for the benefit of the same current beneficiary or beneficiaries, and to maximize the amount of trust property that eventually may be distributed to my issue without transfer tax of any kind at the termination of all trusts created under this will.

3. Insofar as the trustees deem it advisable, no principal of any trust created under this will that is exempt from generation-skipping taxes due to the allocation of a GST exemption to it shall be distributed to a beneficiary of such trust so long as there is in existence any other trust created hereunder (a) that is not exempt from generation-skipping taxes, and (b) that contains principal that may also be distributed by the trustees to such beneficiary.

ITEM TEN

1. The trustees of any trust created hereunder shall be my children, Marsha Kim L. Contorno and Curtis Mark Luna. If either of my children be dead or fails or refuses to act as a trustee or, having acted, should thereafter die, resign or become incapacitated, then and in any such event no successor to such child shall be appointed, and my other child shall act as sole trustee. If both of my children be dead or are otherwise unable or unwilling to act as trustees hereunder, then and in any such event my grandson, Nick Contorno, shall act as trustee. If both of my children and my said grandson be dead or otherwise unable or unwilling to act as trustees, then and in any such event a successor trustee shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3 and 4 of ITEM ELEVEN hereof.

2. In addition to, and not by way of limitation of, the powers conferred by law upon fiduciaries, I hereby expressly grant to the trustees with respect to each of the

A. To retain and hold any property, including stocks, bonds or other securities, originally received by the trustees as a part of the trust estate, irrespective of whether such property is a so-called "legal" investment of trust funds and irrespective of the relative proportion of the trust estate represented by any such property or part thereof;

B. To sell, exchange, transfer or convey, either before or after option granted, all or any part of the trust estate upon any terms and conditions, and to invest and reinvest the trust estate and the proceeds of sale or disposal of any portion thereof in any loans, stocks, bonds or other securities, common trust funds, mortgages, participations in mortgages, shares of regulated investment companies or trusts, or other property, real or personal, whether so-called "legal" investments of trust funds or not;

C. To improve, repair, lease or rent for improvement or otherwise for a term beyond the possible termination of the trust or for any less term, either with or without option of purchase, and to develop, let, exchange, release, partition, subdivide, vacate, dedicate, adjust the boundaries of or change the use of any real estate constituting a part of the trust estate;

D. To borrow money from any lender, including the trustee, for any purpose, with or without security or mortgage of any real estate or pledge of any personal property held by the trustees hereunder;

E. To determine whether or to what extent receipts should be determined to be income or principal, whether or

F. To keep any property constituting a part of the trust estate properly insured against any hazards, to pay all taxes or assessments, mortgages or other liens now or hereafter resting upon said property, and generally to pay all the expenses of the trust incurred in the exercise of the powers herein vested in the trustees;

G. To make divisions and distributions hereunder provided for either in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind; to allocate different kinds or disproportionate shares of property or undivided interests in property among the beneficiaries or separate trusts, without liability for, or obligation to make compensating adjustments by reason of, disproportionate allocations of unrealized gain for federal income tax purposes; to determine the value of any property so allocated, divided or distributed; and to determine the share and identity of persons entitled to take hereunder;

H. To hold any or all securities or other property constituting the trust estate in bearer form, in the name of the trustees, or in the name of some other person, partnership or corporation without disclosing any fiduciary relation, and to mingle any or all of the property constituting the trust estate in investments with other property held in other trust estates;

3. All powers given to the trustees in this Item and elsewhere in this will are exercisable by the trustees only in a fiduciary capacity.

ITEM ELEVEN

1. Any trustee serving hereunder may resign as to any trust created hereunder at any time without assigning any cause or reason therefor and without action or approval of any court by an instrument of resignation which shall have attached to it either proof that a copy has been sent to, or acknowledgment of receipt of a copy from, such of my children as are then living and competent to act.

2. 4. Any instrument of resignation, removal or appointment shall be executed and acknowledged as required by law in the case of deeds and shall be filed with the original records of the trust.

ITEM TWELVE

I nominate and appoint my children, Marsha Kim L. Contorno and Curtis Mark Luna, as executors of this my Last Will and Testament. If either of my children be dead or fails or refuses to act as an executor or, having acted, should thereafter die, resign or become incapacitated, then and in any such event no successor to such child shall be appointed, and my other child shall act as sole executor. If both of my children be dead or otherwise unable or unwilling to act as executors, then and in any such event my grandson, Nick Contorno, shall act as executor.

The executors acting at any time hereunder shall not be required to give bond or to file an inventory or appraisal of my estate in any court, although the executors shall make and keep an inventory and shall exhibit the same to any party in interest at any reasonable time.

I hereby vest in my executors acting at any time hereunder the same full powers of management, control and disposition of my estate herein given my trustees under ITEM TEN hereof, and I direct that in the exercise of such powers my executors shall be free from the supervision and control of the probate court or any other court.

As used in this will, the term "executors" shall mean any person, whether male or female, or any bank or trust company having trust powers that is at any time acting as a personal representative of my estate.

ITEM THIRTEEN

Should it be necessary for a representative of my estate to qualify in any jurisdiction wherein the executor named herein cannot or may not desire to qualify as such, or if at any time and for any reason there shall be no executor in office in such other jurisdiction, then I appoint as executor therein such person or corporation as may be designated by my executor. Such substituted executor shall, without giving any security, have in such other jurisdiction all the rights, powers, authorities, duties and discretions conferred or imposed upon the executor by the provisions of this will.

ITEM FOURTEEN

Whenever distribution is to be made to the "heirs" of an individual determined at a stated time, distribution shall be made to such person or persons as would be entitled to inherit the property constituting the same and in the proportions in which they would be entitled to inherit the same from such individual under the laws of descent and distribution of Alabama relating to real property in force at the stated time had such individual died at that time, domiciled in Alabama, intestate, unmarried and owned the same, whether the property being distributed is real, personal or mixed.

ITEM FIFTEEN

All references in this will to "child" or "children" shall mean lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated, and references to "issue" shall mean lawful blood descendants in the first, second or any more remote degree of the ancestor designated; provided always, however, that an adopted child and such adopted child's lawful blood descendants shall be considered as lawful blood descendants of the adopting parent or parents and of anyone who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or of either of the
